

Place the Sigil under the bed near the headspace for three days and three nights. This will fill your heart with love and renew your mind and spirit with love and self-love. After this period, release it with a prayer of gratitude.