Entity Removal Program

Please read this disclaimer carefully before engaging in our self-guided program for entity removal. By participating in our program, you acknowledge and agree to the following terms:

- 1. Importance of Awareness and Lifestyle Changes: Our self-guided program focuses on removing entities from your energy field. However, it is important to understand that certain lifestyle choices and habits can contribute to the presence of entities. These may include engaging in vices, addictions, drug use, frequenting bars, engaging in unprotected sex or sex with multiple partners, or residing in potentially haunted spaces, among others. It is essential to be aware of and willing to make changes to these lifestyle factors, as they can invite entities into your energy field.
- 2. Client's Willingness to Change: It is crucial that you, as the client, are genuinely willing to make the necessary lifestyle changes described above. If you are not prepared or motivated to alter these habits at this time, our program may not be suitable for you. The effectiveness of the entity removal process is greatly dependent on your commitment to making positive changes in your life.
- 3. Consequences of Not Changing Habits: Should you choose to proceed with the entity removal program without modifying the habits and lifestyle choices that attract entities, there is a high likelihood that the entities may return or not be fully released.

Please note, that if the entity or entities are not removed after the first attempt, I will channel a second sigil for you and conduct a third energy scan at the end of the process. It is likely that the entity will be cleared after this second attempt.

In such instances that after the second attempt, the entity is not released, we cannot be held responsible for the clearing not achieving the desired results. If you wish to undergo another clearing, you will be required to pay the full price for an additional session, or I will do my best to recommend another practitioner.

4. No Guarantees: It is important to note that while our self-guided program aims to assist in removing entities from your energy field, we cannot guarantee the complete elimination or permanent absence of entities. The effectiveness of the clearing process may vary based on numerous factors, including the individual's receptiveness, commitment to lifestyle changes, and the complexity of the entity's presence.

Please note, that if the entity or entities are not removed after the first attempt, I will channel a second sigil for you and conduct a third energy scan at the end of the process. It is likely that the entity will be cleared after this second attempt.

In rare instances that after the second attempt, the entity is not released, we cannot be held responsible for the clearing not achieving the desired results. If you wish to undergo another clearing, you will be required to pay the full price for an additional session, or I will do my best to recommend another practitioner.

5. Not a Substitute for Professional Help: Our self-guided program is not intended to replace professional medical, psychological, or legal advice. If you are experiencing severe physical or mental health issues or believe you are in immediate danger, we strongly recommend seeking appropriate professional assistance before or alongside participating in our program.

By engaging in our self-guided program, you affirm that you have carefully read and understood this disclaimer. You further acknowledge that you are solely responsible for any decisions, actions, or consequences resulting from your participation in the entity removal program, including the decision to maintain or change your lifestyle habits.
